BCTELA 2012-2013 Voices Visible Writing Contest Rules

- 1 The Voices Visible Writing Contest is open to all students in British Columbia from Grades 2 to 12.
- 2 This contest is free to enter.
- 3 Contest entries must be submitted by a BCTELA member. To become a member, please register at BCTELA.ca
- 4 Submissions must be posted by April 30, 2013.
- 5 There is no limit to the number of entries an individual student may submit. The categories are Prose and Poetry. Entries are limited to 500 words. All entries must be typed, or word processed, double spaced and submitted in hard copy. Poetry may be spaced the way the poet has written it.
- 6 Submissions will not be returned due to the high volume of entries received. Please have an electronic version ready to deliver if the entry is chosen as a winning submission by the judging panel.
- 7 Please fully complete and submit the BCTELA Voices Visible Writing Contest Entry Form for each submission. Type the information or use a word processing program to ensure accuracy. Neat, block-letter printing will also be accepted. All fields are required in the event an individual needs to be contacted. Incomplete forms will result in the submission being disqualified.
- 8 The author's name should NOT appear on the actual submission, only on the BCTELA entry which is attached to each submission
- 9 The decision of the judging panel is final.
- 10 Winning entries will be notified by phone or email. The winning author will receive one complimentary copy of the Voices Visible publication containing the published winning entries from this contest. Copies may also be purchased from BCTELA.
